Subject:	Update on the “Qualifying Examination” requirement for Physicians and Dentists
Date:	7 May 2023

Greetings from the Department of Healthcare Professions,

In alignment with circulars no. (07/2023), (22/2020) and (12/2021) regarding the registration and licensing requirements for Assistant Specialty, GP (Supervised) and GD (Supervised) categories and DHP’s Continuous pursuit to ensure the competency of healthcare practitioners and maintain patient safety, DHP has decided the following:

- “Assistant Specialty (Physicians who hold a post-graduate degree from category “3””, “GP (Supervised)” and “GD (Supervised)” categories must attach the valid passing exam certificate for the “Specialty”, “General Practitioner”, and “General Dentist” exams respectively in the evaluation application.
- These categories will not be required to attach the passing exam certificate when changing the scope of practice to specialty or GP or GD.
