“The Registration Department in Qatar Council for Healthcare Practitioners presents to you its compliments”.

In order to enhance the quality of services provided by QCHP and in order to avoid any obstacles that may hinder its functions; the council underlines the need for full compliance with the ethics of communication and mutual respect.

In light of the above, all focal points and healthcare practitioners in the governmental and private sectors, must fully comply with the principles of mutual understanding and effective communication on the basis of trust, mutual respect and religious values that encourage the appreciation of others and self-restraint.

Accordingly, anyone who violates the above mentioned principles shall be subject to legal liability under articles no. 166, 167, 168 and 169 of Qatar Penal Code no. 11 in relation to any insulting, assaulting or threatening behaviour towards the public officers during the course of their work.

All the above mentioned shall be effective immediately.

Thank you for your kind cooperation
