“The Qatar Council for Healthcare Practitioners (QCHP) presents to you its compliments”.

As part of QCHP’s efforts to assure the availability of radiation safety courses as a main requirement for granting/renewal of radiation license. Please, be informed that Occupational Health and Safety Department at Hamad Medical Corporation will conduct a workshop about radiation safety on 14/11/2017. The mentioned workshop will be recognized by QCHP as radiation safety course for the purpose of granting/renewal radiation license.

The afore mentioned workshop will be a part of 9th International Conference of Isotopes; hence any healthcare practitioner who is interested to join should register at the link: www.9ici.org
